(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Danville, Va., May 11.—The closing session of the Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, of Virginia, was marked by a large attendance on the part of the delegates and with ideal spring weather.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Ellen Seaborn, Portsmouth; Vice-President, Miss Lucy Harlow, Staunton; Grand Warden, Mrs. Daisy Jones, Norfolk; Secretary, Mrs. O. Bunch, Lynchburg; Treasurer, Mrs. Anna McCoy, Norfolk.

Frank Carlin, near Mount Vernon, on the Potomac. The occasion was celebrated by music by forty-five pieces of the Naval Academy Band, Annapolis. About 100 guests were in attendance. Brief speeches were made by Representative Parker, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, New Jersey; Representative Clayton, Alabama; Representative Henry, of Texas; Representative Moon, of Pennsylvania; Representative Webb, of North Carolina; Representative Maynard, of Virginia; Representative Nye, of Minnesota.

Alexander J. Webberdun presented all of the members of the committee with a set of bronze memorial medals, struck off at the government mint in Washington by an act of Congress, several years ago, in the interest of the erection of a monument to Washington, to be erected here. Mr. Webberdun and Representative Carlin also made speeches.

A jury in the Circuit Court to-night gave John H. Trimmer a verdict for $5,000 in his suit to recover that amount against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company for injuries received while a passenger on the defendant company's cars.

John Rust, twenty-six years old, son of Dr. D. N. Rust, Alexandria county, died in Washington this morning. He was unmarried.

Negro Fined for Shooting.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Roanoke, Va., May 11.—Jessie Hairston, colored, was today fined $20 by Magistrate Camper at Salem for shooting at E. B. Moorman, a well-known citizen of the county. Hairston met Mr. Moorman on the highway at night and asked him for a match. Mr. Moorman paid no attention to the request, and Hairston fired on him. The bullet went wild.

GALA WEEK AT ROANOKE.

Industrial Parade, Automobile Races and Music Festival Features.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Roanoke, Va., May 11.—This was the first day of Roanoke gala week, and the program was carried out to the letter. In the forenoon a large industrial parade passed through the business section. During the afternoon automobile races were held at the Fair Grounds. The only accident was that which befell the machine driven by E. S. Green, Jr., and this was not accompanied by any serious injury. The machine became unmanageable and dashed into a fence, tearing down a panel and jerking up two posts. Young Green's escape was miraculous.

To-night the music festival opened in the Academy of Music, with the Pittsburgh orchestra, conducted by Carl Bernthal. A large and representative audience of Roanokers and South-west Virginians attended.

PERMANENTLY HEALS SORES & ULCERS

Old sores remain open and chronic ulcers refuse to heal because they are kept constantly irritated and infected by impurities in the blood. This impurity of the circulation comes from various causes. A long spell of debilitating sickness, which breeds disease germs in the system, the retention of refuse matters of the body because of a sluggish condition of the eliminative members, a continued malarial state of health, inherited bad blood, etc., are usually responsible. But whatever the cause of the infected circulation, the sore in the very simplest way. It just goes into the circulation and removes the impurities and polluted matter which are the means of keeping the sore open; then the sore is bound to heal. S. S. S. is the finest of all blood purifiers, and not only does it cleanse the circulation but it adds the necessary healing qualities to the blood, and in this way assists nature to quickly cure sores and ulcers. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., can do no permanent good toward healing an old sore because such treatment does not reach the blood. These external applications may be soothing and cleansing, but the healing must begin at the bottom, and this is just what S. S. S. does by first purifying the blood, and then furnishing nourishment and health to all the flesh tissues. Book on Sores and Ulcers free to all who write and request it.

MAKES STRANGE DEFENSE.

Alleged Cocaine Fiend Denies Responsibility for His Crime.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Wilmington, N. C., May 11.—In the United States District Court here this afternoon Everett McAllister, a well-known young white man, twenty-nine years of age, pleaded guilty to rifling letters in the post-office here, and was sentenced to twelve months in the Federal prison in Atlanta.

McAllister, while admitting his guilt, made the strange defense that he was a cocaine and opium fiend, and introduced an expert to testify that he was such, and that both the use of the beverage and the drug had a harmful effect on him and made his mentality only low type.

McAllister was a trusted post-office clerk, and rifled a number of letters. He was finally caught by detectives by means of a decoy letter. He claimed that he committed the crime while under the influence of drugs and knew nothing about it. In view of this plea, his past good character, and the fact that he has a wife and baby the light sentence was imposed.

ELECTION NOT NECESSARY.

Men Named on Staunton Ticket Will Be Declared Nominees.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Staunton, Va., May 11.—The Democratic ticket for Staunton ordered a primary election for to-morrow for candidates to fill approaching vacancies in the Board of Aldermen and Common Council. Two Aldermen in each ward and three Common Councilmen in one ward and four in the others are to be elected. Owing to factional differences, growing out of the local option election of last summer, the radical liquor men tried to defeat the primary, desiring to combine with the Republicans and elect a mixed ticket of wet men. But the committee stood to the primary, and a ticket has been named, composed of well-known business and professional men, taken from the moderate and conservative men of each faction, and with few exceptions Democrats are rallying around the ticket. As no opposition was entered, it will not be necessary to hold a primary election to-morrow, and the men named on the ticket will be declared the nominees.

WILL ELECT KILGO ON FIRST BALLOT

adopted, the petition of the women would go back to the annual conference for their confirmation or rejection. These conferences would then report their action to the next General Conference, set for the year 1914. There is no probability, however, that the substitute report will be adopted by the conference. It is probable, on the other hand, that the women will renew the effort for the rights they claim at the next General Conference of a similar nature. The question of women's ministry in the church was introduced. He has been a missionary in China for more than thirty years, and will return to that empire in the autumn of this year. He is identified closely with the religious life of his home church and of the Chinese.

Rev. W. R. Young, fraternal messenger from the Methodist Church in Canada, spoke farewell words to the conference, expressing appreciation for the courtesies and hospitable life of the conference. Mr. Duhose presented to Dr. Young a paper of historical value to American Methodism, especially to Methodism in Canada.

For Closer Union.
A resolution was adopted recommending the appointment of a joint committee of the three branches of Methodism in America, six bishops, six preachers and six laymen each, from the Methodist Episcopal Church in Canada, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

An invitation was received from preachers and laymen in Florida and from the Tampa Board of Trade, urging the conference to hold its next session in Tampa. The invitations were referred to the committee on General Conference and Entertainment. The special committee appointed to consider the special conditions existing in the Western Virginia Conference, submitted a report recommending that $2,500 be spent in that territory at once to aid in overcoming the difficulties there.

The report recommended also that the bishops of the church spend as much time as possible in that territory. Lengthy discussion followed the report of the committee on Sunday schools, recommending certain changes in the discipline. This recommendation was opposed by J. W. Perry, C. H. Briggs and others upon the ground that such a change would give the general boards of the church included in the recommendation too much of the power that belongs rightly in the hands of the pastor. The report was not adopted until amended.

A resolution with reference to the representative church in Washington was referred to the committee on church extension.

This evening the conference met to hear the fraternal address of Rev. John S. Simon, of the British Wesleyan Church, an address that thrilled the audience on an account of its thoughtful composition and brotherly spirit.

One of the most interesting mass-meetings anticipated during the conference is that to be held on Friday evening under the direction of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and number of prominent preachers and laymen will speak at that time regarding the object and work of this organization.

DELUGE OF CHORUS GIRLS EXPECTED

Stranded Actors Cannot Find Manager With Whom They Made Contract.

Police headquarters is walking in fear and trembling of a deluge of chorus girls. One hundred and fifty are said to be expected to descend on Richmond next Monday morning, and the authorities are at their wits' end. Incidentally, there promises to be opened a new panorama at Idlewood, which should prove a summer attraction for many Richmonders. It looked for a time yesterday as though the affairs of the new show would figure in the police record, even before it was opened, but it is now believed that the trouble will be cleared up before the avalanche of chorus girls arrive.

It all began yesterday morning, when two men—one a comedian and the other the trainer of a chorus—reported to police headquarters that they had signed contracts with an electric park company, and that on arrival in Richmond they had been unable to find the man with whom they made the deal. The chorus manager said he had contracted for his part of the show, and that other players were expected. The police communicated with the manager of Idlewood, Forest Hill, and with the street railway company, but no such electric park could be located. The players went over to see what the police authorities would do with the man who had made a contract with them by mail.

Then it developed that Manager Lewis, of Idlewood, had recently submitted a portion of that resort to a company which operates amusement enterprises in Greensboro and Charlotte, and the players were pacified with the assurance that their employer would turn up in due time. No money had been paid, and Mrs. Withers was determined that it was hardly a case in which they could act.
